on the recommendations of school masters.

2 The second part of the Resn. deals with the question of granting half to such a Committee either from the funds of the Edn. Committee or by Govt.

3 Before the question of grant is considered, the Edn Com: has perhaps to ~~studied~~ work in the direction of starting an Association with the objects contemplated, and with a definite constitution and programme of work.

Subd proceedings if I think the Committee may be requested to take some action in the matter in the direction of forming such Committees

Resolution No.2.

Starting of a Private Committee called "The Students' Aid Association" for collecting Subscriptions and Dispensing Aid to poor and Deserving Students.

This Conference recommends that, to assist intelligent students who are obliged to give up their studies from inability to meet necessary expenses connected with their education, a private committee called "The Students' Aid Association" be started in each large town or city, for collecting subscriptions and dispensing aid on the recommendations of school masters, and that if such organisations be established, some help will be given either from the funds of the Education Committee or by Government. Carried by a large majority.
